A pretty wedding of the midsummer was that of Miss Anna Bodell Yeatman, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Henry Yeatman, and Mr. Walter Rogers Beach of New York city, which occurred yesterday morning at the bride's home, 1729 F street northwest. The ceremony, which was performed by Rev. Henry Thomas, rector of St. Michael and All Angels' Church, was witnessed by the imme-diate families of the contracting parties. The bride was attired in white crepe de chine, with yoke of old duchesse lace. Her bouquet was of orchids and lilies of the valley. A wedding breakfast followed the ceremony. The house was beautifully deco-rated in palms and cut flowers. Later in the day Mr. and Mrs. Beach left the city for an extended northern tour. After November 1 they will be at home at 125 West 85th street, New York city. Mr. Beach is a lawyer in New York, while his bride, who is an accomplished musician, has a wide circle of friends in this city.

WIFE SUES LORD BAGOT. Complainant Was Miss Lillian May of Baltimore.

LONDON, July 26.-The divorce court today handed down a decree granting Lady Bagot of Rugely, formerly Miss Lillian May of Baltimore, the restoration of her rights as a wife. Lord Bagot was sued on the ground that his allowance of $4,000 to his wife was not sufficient for her maintenance and that of her baby daughter Barbara. He left his wife soon after the christening of this child. It is understood that Lord Bagot before

It is understood that Lord Bagot before his marriage signed an agreement that all the children born of the union should be brought up in the Roman Catholic faith, but English jurists held that such a contract was not binding.

Counsel for Lord Bagot announced today, that the defendant did not propose to resist the ciaim. In the event of Lord Bagot not obeying the decree of the court Lady Bagot will be in a position to sue for divorce on the ground of desertion.
